

CONTRIBUTORS

Dennis DELETANT

University College London, School of Slavonic and East European Studies
United Kingdom,

d.deletant@ucl.ac.uk

Is a visiting professor of the Department of Romanian Studies "Ion Ratiu" at Georgetown University, Washington, DC, and Professor Emeritus at the School of Slavonic and East European Studies, University College, London. Doctor Honoris Causa of the Ovidius University of Constanța. Professor Deletant is also the Honorary Director of the Institute for Black Sea Studies at Ovidius University of Constanța.

Florin ANGHEL

"Ovidius" University of Constanța, Romania

fl_angel@yahoo.com

Florin Anghel is Professor at the Faculty of History and Political Science, „Ovidius” University of Constanța, with a doctoral thesis on the evolution of bilateral relations between Romania and Poland in the period between the two World Wars. His main research interests include the history of international relations in the 20th century, the evolution of political systems in Central Europe in the interwar period, the state of the Polish and Slovak communities of Romania until 1945.

Gabriel Stelian MANEA

"Ovidius" University of Constanța, Romania

gabrielstelianmanea@yahoo.com

Gabriel Stelian Manea is a lecturer, PhD, at the "Ovidius" University of Constanța, Faculty of History and Political Science. His areas of interest include the relationship between the church and communist regimes, spiritual and cultural anti-communist dissent, and the history of the Romanian Orthodox Church during the communist period.

Olena UVAROVA

Odesa National Medical University, Odesa, Ukraine

uvarova@ukr.net

Olena Uvarova is a historian and Associate Professor at the Department of Social Sciences at Odesa National Medical University, Ukraine. She was born in 1980 in Odesa. Olena graduated from the Odesa I. I. Mechnikov National University in 2003 with an honors degree and obtained a PhD in World History there in 2008. After having received her doctoral degree, she joined the Odesa National Medical University where she still teaches humanitarian courses. Many years of academic career her research was dedicated to the international relations in framework of Eastern question (18th-19th centuries) and history of Greek community in Odesa. In recent years, Olena has been cooperating with the Branch of the Hellenic Foundation for Culture in Odesa and participating in joint research projects. In 2023, she received an Honorary title of professional delegate - the award of Hellenic foundation for culture (Athens) presented in recognition of the contribution to the development of Greek culture and civilization. The countries where she has participated in scientific conferences include Ukraine, Romania, Finland, and Latvia. Dr. Uvarova was the Visiting Fellow at the Aleksanteri Institute, University of Helsinki, Finland (August – September 2023), Virtual Fellow at the Linda Hall Library, Kansas, USA (15 July–15 August 2024), Fellow (in-residence) at the New Europe College – Institute for Advanced Study, Bucharest, Romania (October 2024 – July 2025).

Cristian CEALERA

Museum of National History and Archaeology MINAC, Constanța, Romania
cristiancealera@yahoo.com

Cristian Cealera is a museum pedagogue at the Museum of National History and Archaeology MINAC, Museography and Exhibitions in the Territory Section. Born on July 16, 1974, in Techirghiol, Constanța County, he holds a degree in Law, specializing in Forensic Science, from the Faculty of Law and International Relations "Nicolae Titulescu" Bucharest, class of 1997. In 2018, he graduated from the master's degree courses at the Faculty of History and Political Science, "Ovidius" University of Constanța. He is a doctor in history since 2022, after a doctorate at "Alexandru Ioan Cuza University", in Iași, graduated with the thesis "The Cult of the Goddess Cybele in the Province of Moesia Inferior (1st-3rd centuries AD) - The Interaction of the Great Mother with the Local Divinities". He has distinguished himself in the last decade through works dedicated to both the general public and the scientific world, his articles, albums, catalogs and books dealing exclusively with the history of Dobrogea.

Adegboyega ADEDIRE

Osun State University, Nigeria
adegboyegaadedire23@gmail.com

He teaches History at the Osun State University, Osogbo, Nigeria, and is a Junior Research Fellow, Institut Francais de Recherche en Afrique (IFRA), Nigeria. His research interest includes social and political history. His recent works include Civil Wars and African Universities: The University of Ibadan Example, 1967-1970. (2018), Fighting at Home and Fighting Abroad: University of Ibadan Students and the Nigerian Civil War, 1967-1970. (2020), The New Class of the Poor: Nigeria's Returnee of the Second World War (2022), Ethnicity and Ethnic Nationalism: The Igbos in the University of Ibadan, 1948-1966, (2025).

Raifu ISIAKA

Osun State University, Nigeria

raifuisiaka@gmail.com

He teaches in the Department of History and International Studies, Osun State University, Nigeria. His major areas of research interest are Economic, Social, and Cultural History of Nigeria, and Islamic Studies. He has a number of journal articles and chapters in a book. These publications, among others, include: Mikail A. Folorunsho and Isiaka O. Raifu, (2020) Itinerant 'Ulama' and the Dissemination of Arabic Scholarship in Yorubaland, Nigeria.; Isiaka Raifu (2017), Ibadan in the 20th Century: Nigerian Politics. Raifu Isiaka (2016) 'Intrigues and Twists in the Imamate Crisis of Lagos Central Mosque (Jama'atul Muslimeen Council), 1848 to 1947'

Oluchukwu Ignatus ONIANWA

Dennis Osadebay University, Asaba, Nigeria

oluchukwu.Onianwa@dou.edu.ng

Oluchukwu Ignatus Onianwa is a Lecturer I and Coordinator, Department of History, Strategic and International Studies, Faculty of Arts, Dennis Osadebay University, Asaba, Delta State. His areas of specialization are African Studies, Military History, Diplomatic History, Peace And Conflict Studies, Humanitarianism, Black Studies, Biafran Studies, Human Rights And International Affairs, Cyber-Diplomatic Studies. Onianwa has authored several books and equally attended international conferences in Lexington Kentucky, United States of America and University of the Free State Bloemfontein South Africa respectively.

Shabir Ahmad GANAIE

University of Kashmir

shabeerhistory18@gmail.com

Shabir Ahmad Ganaie is a scholar of South Asian history with a special interest in the role of the Ahmadiyya community in Kashmir's political and social landscape. He holds a Master's degree in History from the University of Kashmir and has qualified CBSE-CTET, JKSLET, UGC-NET (History), and UGC-NET (Indian Culture). He has served as a Lecturer in History at the 10+2 level and has also worked with Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya (JNV). His paper titled "Exploring the Forgotten Episodes of Kashmir History: Ahmadiyyas and the Freedom Movement", published in the International Journal of Creative Research Thoughts (IJCRT), highlights his commitment to uncovering overlooked narratives

Mihai CEARPAIC

National University of Political Studies and Public Administration, Bucharest, Romania

mihai_cearpaic@yahoo.com

Mihai Cearpaic is a Ph.D. candidate at the National University of Political Studies and Public Administration in Bucharest, Romania, in the field of political science. He holds a B.A. in International Relations and European Studies and a M.A. in International Relations from the Faculty of History and Political Science, Ovidius University in Constanta. Research interests: The consequences of the Arab Spring on authoritarian regimes in the MENA region, authoritarian resilience, and democracy resistance in the Middle East.

Adriana Claudia CÎTEIA

”Ovidius” University of Constanța, Romania

adriana.citeia@yahoo.com

Faculty of History and Political Science, „Ovidius” University of Constanța. Ph.D in History (University of Bucharest), Ph.D in Political Science (University of Bucharest), Ph.D in Philosophy (University of Bucharest). She published 50 studies and articles in scientific journals. Main research interests: religious and political aspects of Byzantine and Post-Byzantine history, the history of the Western Black Sea Coast reflected in literary and epigraphic sources.

Adrian-Alexandru HERȚA

”Ovidius” University of Constanța, Romania

adrian_hertza@yahoo.com

Adrian-Alexandru Herța holds a PhD in History. He is teaching assistant lecturer at the Faculty of History and Political Sciences, „Ovidius” University of Constanța. His main research interests focus on political history of the 19th and 20th century. Most of his writings explore the connections between various electoral systems of modern Europe.

Samson Adesola ADESOTE

Osun State University, Nigeria

solaade2007@ymail.com

Adesote Samson Adesola is an Associate Professor and Acting Head, Department of History and International Studies, Faculty of Humanities, Osun State University, Osogbo, Nigeria. He has his Nigeria Certificate in Education (Economics and History) from Adeyemi College of Education, Ondo, Nigeria; B.A Ed History from Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife, Nigeria; and M.A and PhD History from the University of Ibadan, Nigeria. He is a budding Historian and prolific writer. His articles have appeared in many learned international and local journals and chapters in reputable books. His major areas of research interests are Economic and Social History with major emphasis on Migration and Conflict Studies; and Political History. Some of his publications are Colonial rule and Political Relations between Ondo and its neighbours, 1915-1951. Al-ADAB Journal, Issue 152, 2025, pp.57-76; Environmental Influence on the Migration and Settlement of Oyo-Osun Cocoa Migrant Farmers in Ondo Division, Southwestern Nigeria, 1930s-1970s. Romanian Journal of Historical Studies Volume VII – Issues 1-2, 2024, pp.85-98;

Florin ANGHEL

”Ovidius” University of Constanța, Romania

fl_angel@yahoo.com

Florin Anghel is Professor at the Faculty of History and Political Science, „Ovidius” University of Constanța, with a doctoral thesis on the evolution of bilateral relations between Romania and Poland in the period between the two World Wars. His main research interests include the history of international relations in the 20th century, the evolution of political systems in Central Europe in the interwar period, the state of the Polish and Slovak communities of Romania until 1945.

Gabriel Stelian MANEA

”Ovidius” University of Constanța, Romania

gabrielstelianmanea@yahoo.com

Gabriel Stelian Manea is a lecturer, PhD, at the “Ovidius” University of Constanța, Faculty of History and Political Science. His areas of interest include the relationship between the church and communist regimes, spiritual and cultural anti-communist dissent, and the history of the Romanian Orthodox Church during the communist period.

Georgiana ȚĂRANU

”Ovidius” University of Constanța, Romania

georgianataranu87@gmail.com

Georgiana Țăranu holds a BA in History and Political Sciences from the Faculty of History and Political Science, „Ovidius” University of Constanța. She earned her PhD in History from the Romanian Academy’s “N. Iorga” Institute of History (Bucharest). She has published a monograph (Nicolae Iorga și seducția fascismului italian, Humanitas, 2025), several book chapters and articles in academic publications in Turkey, Poland and Greece. She has also coordinated two edited volumes (Mioara Anton, Georgiana Țăranu, coord., În căutarea celui alt: diplomatie, război, memorie. In Honorem Ileana Căzan. Volum omagial, Cetatea de Scaun, Târgoviște, 2024; Daniel Citirigă, Georgiana Țăranu, and Adrian-Alexandru Herța, eds., Intelectualii politici și politica intelectualilor, Târgoviște:

Editura Cetatea de Scaun, 2016). Her current research interests are: Nicolae Iorga's political biography, Romanian nationalism, Italian fascism, fascist propaganda in interwar Romania, the relationship between intellectuals and totalitarianism. Since October 2017 Georgiana holds the position of assistant lecturer at the Faculty of History and Political Sciences, „Ovidius” University of Constanța

Emanuel PLOPEANU

„Ovidius” University of Constanța, Romania

emmiplop@yahoo.com

Emanuel Plopeanu is an associate professor, PhD, at the "Ovidius" University of Constanta, Faculty of History and Political Science. His areas of interest include United States policy towards the South-East Europe in the 20th century, Romanian - Turkish relations in the same period, Dobrudja integration into Romanian state and the relations between communities. All these topics were presented in national and international conferences and make the object of published articles and books.